

Berea Diving Club

Policies, Procedures, Fees

1. Each diver must stay in the group they choose until the end of the session.
2. Divers may come to any scheduled practice for their group during the session. Divers may not roll over missed practices into the next session.
3. Lessons and High School group divers must attend practice during their scheduled practice times. They may not attend practice with the Elite/Elite Lite group. The Elite/Elite Lite group may attend any scheduled practices with the High School or Lessons groups when needed.
4. Billing will be sent out the third week of a session for the upcoming session. All fees are due at or before the first scheduled or attended practice during a session. Divers will not be permitted in the water until the payment for the session is received. Parents will be notified via email for any unpaid fees.
5. All divers practicing in their respective groups will be responsible for at least the minimum fee for the group. Divers who cannot make the minimum required practices for their group and do not wish to pay the minimum fee must drop down into a lower group. Divers will be responsible for the respective fees of the lower group that corresponds to their practice schedule. All divers must pay one of the listed fee plans. There will be no pro rated fees.
6. When traveling, the divers are expected to pay the coach's airfare/car rental/fuel plus hotel. There will be a coach's daily fee for meets. Coach's fees are announced before each meet.
7. Credits will be given to divers due to extended illness or other unforeseen circumstances. The club will consider these on an individual basis. Practice conflicts due to participation in other activities will not be given credits. Credits will not be given for vacations during sessions. There are no refunds.

Policies, Procedures, Fees

8. Parents may stay and watch any practice. The club encourages new parents to watch some practice to better understand what we are trying to accomplish. Parents are not permitted on the pool deck during practice for safety reasons. Please do not interact with your diver during practice. Coaches will be available after practice to answer any questions.
9. All divers must register with the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) as members of the Berea Diving Club before they are permitted to practice. This is a yearly fee of $16.00 that expires every August 31. This may be done on-line at aausports.org. There is a separate form on the website explaining how to complete this process.
10. Berea Diving Club Facilities and Equipment Fee: $75.00. This is an annual fee that is used to maintain and upgrade the equipment and facilities where we conduct practices. The fee will be assessed in September or during the first session the diver joins the club. Divers joining the club after March 1 will be subjected to a pro rated fee at the club's discretion. Please make this check payable to: Berea Diving Club, LLC.
